

UNIVERSITY OF SANTO TOMAS
COLLEGE OF NURSING

España Boulevard, Sampaloc, Manila, Philippines 1015
Tel. No. 406-1611 loc.8241 | Telefax: 731-5738 | Website: www.ust.edu.ph

STUDENT'S EVALUATION OF CLINICAL EXPERIENCE
OPERATING ROOM

Name: _____ Yr. & Sec.: _____ Average: _____
Instructor: _____ Area: _____ Shift: _____ Date: From _____ to _____

| Numerical Rating | Quantitative | Description |
|------------------|-------------------------|---|
| 5 | Outstanding | Consistently performs the above-expected level, Independent |
| 4 | Exceeds Standards | Usually performs above the expected level, Independent |
| 3 | Meets Standards | Performs within standards with minimum supervision |
| 2 | Does not meet standards | Unable to perform within the expected level, needs continuous faculty supervision |
| 1 | Unsatisfactory | Unable to perform even with continuous faculty supervision |

A. Professional Competence (70%)

A. Assessment

1. Exercises good judgment in assessing the condition of the patient _____
2. Correctly identifies the patient and surgery _____
3. Ensures functionality of items to be used in the surgery _____
4. Verifies understanding of the patient and family pertinent to the surgery _____
5. Understands the indications for the various surgery _____
Understands the indication of the various anesthesia administered _____

B. Diagnosis

1. Provides sound decision regarding the care rendered to the patient _____
2. Able to set priority needs pertinent in care of perioperative patterns _____
3. Able to identify various perioperative risks and associated complications _____

C. Planning

1. Formulates plan of care in collaboration with patients and other members _____
2. Able to set specific, measurable, attainable, realistic & time-framed objectives _____

D. Implementation

1. Applies the principles of asepsis at all times _____
2. Implements planned nursing care to achieve identified outcomes _____
3. Applies research findings in practice applicable in the care of the patient _____
4. Utilizes appropriate information technology to facilitate communication _____
5. Demonstrate skills in performing: _____
 - a. Scrubbing _____
 - b. Gowning _____
 - c. Gloving _____
 - d. Serving the gown _____
 - e. Serving the gloves _____
6. Shows competence in performing the role of the scrub nurse _____
 - a. Performs the role of the scrub nurse _____
 - b. Performs the role of the suture nurse _____
 - c. Ensures completeness of all items used _____
Anticipates the needs of the team _____
7. Shows competence in performing the role of the Circulating nurse _____

9. Evaluation

- a. Records outcome of patient care
- b. Evaluates physiological relationship as they relate to surgical procedures
- c. Practices proper endorsement procedures
- d. Ensures that the specimen is properly identifies, labeled and endorsed
- e. Observes legal impediments in record keeping

Total Rating:
Equivalent (70%)

B. Personal Asset (30%)

1. Maintains professional decorum
2. Observes punctuality in all activities
3. Maintains proper grooming
4. Demonstrates integrity in the presence and absence of authority
5. Accepts conclusive criticism and possesses attitude towards change
6. Works harmoniously with others
7. Carries self with confidence and dignity
8. Maintains confidentiality of clients information
9. Displays adaptability to various situations
10. Self-directed and seeks supervision when necessary
11. Maintains optimum health
12. Shows initiative and organizes and utilizes time productively
13. Takes into consideration the ethico-moral aspects of care

Total Rating:
Equivalent (30%)

I. Clinical Performance (70%)

II. Participation in other learning activities

- Return Demonstration
- Preference Cards
- Bibliography
- NCA / Conference
- Examination

FINAL GRADE:

Student's Comments and Suggestions

Signature and Date

Clinical Instructor's Comments and Suggestions